

Request for Bids

Trinidad Rancheria Social Services Department is requesting bids for a local artist to develop, design, and paint three murals in its newly renovated building. The Department request that the themes of murals revolve around culture, healing, and wellness.

Scope of work:

The three murals will be divided into three separate projects. Two of the three murals will be developed in conjunction with a group of youth.

Bids can be submitted for all three murals or just for one. The Artist must be willing to work with the age groups listed in their project description and provide all the materials and paint to complete the project. The Department can provide a projector for the artist to use to complete project if needed. The Department will pay 30% upfront and 70% on completion. Please submit all bids by April 18th 2022.

Mural #1

Wall dimensions: 7'8" high by 12'9" long. This mural will be in the Department's lobby/waiting area next to children's toys. The artist will work with 4-8 youth, ages 8-13 years, to develop the concept, design and paint the mural. The mural should have age appropriate themes around culture, healing and wellness. Approval of design will need to be submitted to Department Director and final approval will be granted by Tribal Council.

Mural #2

Wall dimensions: 6'10" high by 10' long. This mural will be in the Department's visitation/conference room. The artist will work with 4-8 youth ages 14-18 years to develop the concept, design and paint the mural. This mural specifically should be focused around healing but can also incorporate themes of culture and wellness in it as well. Approval of design will need to be submitted to Department Director and final approval will be granted by Tribal Council.

Mural #3

Wall dimensions: 8' high by 11'7" long. This mural will be in one of the Department's office hallway. The artist will have creative liberty to develop, design, and paint a mural around culture, healing, and wellness. Approval of design will need to be submitted to Department Director and final approval will be granted by Tribal Council.
